The Milton Family.

§144. On account of my inability to make the necessary researches, it has been impossible for me to trace accurately the early history of the Milton Family in this country. Tradition says that Richard Milton, who came from England, was married in Pennsylvania to a Miss Ross of Scotland; that later he settled in Virginia on the Potomac River; and that afterwards he removed to Prince William County, taking up lands on Bull Run. It is also said that his brother John, who came from England with him, removed about the same time to South Carolina. I find, however, that the county records, so far as examined, take the family back in Virginia at least one generation further than this. I am certain that they came at first from England, but when they came and where they first settled I have not been able to determine. Among the early land grants recorded in the State Land Office are several in 1636 and 1638 to Richard Milton at Westover in Charles City County, on the James River. While I have no proof of any connection, it is possible and even probable that he was the grandfather of the first Richard Milton mentioned below. In the half century following the time of these grants, a large number of persons removed from that section to the more newly opened lands in the central and northern parts of the State.

RICHARD MILTON and Eliza, his wife, were living in Richmond County about the year 1720. The Parish Register contains the birth dates of at least three of their children;—Anne, b. August 31, 1720; Eliza, b. March 26, 1723; and Sarah, b. May 18, 1728. Their son Richard was born before these entries were made. On August 10, 1725 (Northern Neck Grants, Book A, p. 165) a tract of 454 acres in "Stafford County on Buck Hall branch of Occaquan" was granted to "Richard Melton of Richm^d County". This part of Stafford County soon afterward became Prince William County. Here he died about the year 1733, his will of that date being mentioned in a deed; but the will-book containing it has been destroyed. From deeds recorded in the Prince William courthouse, it is seen that, besides his son Richard mentioned below, he had a son William, who also had a son William who died in 1777, leaving a wife named Fanny. I have not been able to discover the maiden name of Richard Milton's wife Eliza. It may be mentioned that in the early court records the name is spelled Melton as frequently as Milton.

§145. Richard Milton, son of Richard and Eliza Milton, was born about 1715. He inherited from his father a tract of land "adjoining Coupers Cabin Branch" in Prince William County, where he lived and reared a family of nine children. His wife, whose name is mentioned in deeds along with his, was Margaret Ross. It is said that she came of a Scotch family of that name in Pennsylvania. Her grand-children remembered her as being tall, spare, and very neat in dress and appearance. She lived to be about ninety-five years of age, and when a very old lady she was still able to ride on horseback to the home of her son Elijah, making the distance of forty miles in one day. She was born about 1716 and died in 1811. Shortly after the Revolutionary War Richard Milton removed to Kentucky with his wife, his son Moses, and his married daughters, and settled on the Chaplin Fork of Salt River in Nelson County. Here he died about the year 1800. His nine children were,—

§146 A. MOSES MILTON must have been born as early as 1740. His wife's name was Mary, as is shown by a deed of 1787 at the time of his removal to Kentucky. He lived to be a very old man. His numerous posterity are scattered throughout the States of the Middle West. The following outline, with the exception of the descendants of Alexander Ross Milton, was compiled by Rev. Charles L. Milton of Fort Scott, Kan., and I have not attempted to verify it in any particular.

I. JAMES MILTON did not move to Kentucky with his parents, but lived near the Shenandale Springs in Virginia. He was probably born about 1760. He never married.

II. ROBERT MILTON, probably born about 1762, also lived in Virginia.

III. ALEXANDER ROSS MILTON, born about 1764, remained in Virginia, and lived near Berryville. He is said to have been quite a wealthy man. He married July 8, 1802, Sarah Drummond-Stribling, widow of John Stribling; see §71. He died August 23, 1824, leaving five children. An extant letter written August 27, 1824 states that Harriot Taylor (§161) and Ross Milton died "on Sunday", August 23rd, and that within a few days Bushrod Stribling (§71) and Susan Milton, his sister, had died. I mention this as contemporary evidence of these dates.

1. CHARLES WILT MILTON, b. April 8, 1805. He left Virginia when a young man, and settled either in South Carolina or Georgia.
2. MARGARET LUCINDA MILTON, b. Dec. 23, 1808; d. Nov. 10, 1864; m. Sept. 29, 1825, Alfred Castleman: issue,—Osborn, Nathaniel, William, Mann Page (m. Nov. 22, 1866, Maria Ashton Milton, his first cousin: issue,—Clarane Milton, May Willington, Ada Page and Charles Randolph), Mary, Portia, Edward, Fremont, and John R.
3. ALEXANDER ROSS MILTON, b. Frederick County, Sept. 7, 1810; d. "Stony Point", Loudoun County, July 12, 1847; m. ib. May 16, 1839, Ann Cecilia White; for their descendants see §122. He lived first at Winchester, and then at "Stony Point".
4. JAMES FOSTER BARNET MILTON, b. May 28, 1812; m. in 1831, Susan Chinn: issue,—Sarah Ann, Hugh Alexander, Louise Littleton, Susan Peyton, Maria Ashton (m. Mann Page Castleman, her first cousin; see above), Charles Alfred, Henry Clay and James Foster.
5. SUSAN A. MILTON, b. July 26, 1813; d. August 12, 1824.

§160 D. JOHN MILTON, b. Prince William County, about 1758; d. "Milton Valley", near Berryville, March 17, 1818; m. 1st. "Hopewell", Frederick County, July 20, 1782, Ann Stribling (for her ancestry see STRIBLING FAMILY, §62); m. 2nd. near Shenandale, Jefferson County, Feb. 20, 1812, Mrs. Catherine Washington-Nelson (b. "Fairfield" about 1765; d. near Millwood, July 1, 1845; she was the daughter of Warner Washington and Hannah Fairfax, and the widow of Dr. Nelson of Maryland, by whom she had eight children. After the death of Mr. Milton, she moved to the Millwood neighborhood to live with her two married daughters). He came from Prince William County to the Valley when quite a young man, and settled near Berryville, then in Frederick County, but now in Clarke, where he built the homestead of "Milton Valley". He soon became one of the foremost men of the community and a leader in all public enterprises. On Dec. 5, 1780 he gave bond for £35,000 as treasurer of the county board of charities, which office he continued to hold for at least twelve years. In 1797 he was president of the same board. He was Justice of the Peace, Vestryman of the Parish in 1785, and Trustee of Battletown, now Berryville, when the village was incorporated in 1798. He was "a man of strong self-reliance, fine moral character, great industry and enterprise". His broad fields of wheat and corn, and the large herds of cattle and sheep that grazed upon his meadows, indicated the success with which his labors were crowned. "The Story of a Long Life", written by his great-granddaughter, Harriot Milton Hammond, while referring primarily to his daughter, Mrs. Bushrod Taylor, gives an excellent description of the beautiful homelife at "Milton Valley", and of the members of the household and those who so frequently shared their hospitality. He had eleven children by his first marriage, as follows:

I. TALIAFERRO MILTON, b. "Milton Valley", Sept. 13, 1783; d. Staunton, August 12, 1806. He studied law with Judge Holmes of Winchester, and was just beginning to practice at the time of his death.

§161 II. HARRIOT MILTON, b. "Milton Valley", July 23, 1785; d. ib. August 23, 1824; m. 1st. ib. March 13, 1806, John McIlhany (for his ancestry see MCILHANY FAMILY, §129); m. 2nd. ib. Nov. 11, 1812, William Taylor (b. in Kentucky, Feb. 24, 1787; d. "Milton Valley", April 29, 1839; for his ancestry see §185. His home was "Hawthorn", in Clarke County. After the death of her father he purchased "Milton Valley", where he lived till the time of his death). She was a most able woman, and was for some years looked up to by her younger brothers and sisters as the head of the household. During the two years following her first marriage she lived in Loudoun County; then at "Milton Valley" till her second marriage; then till her father's death at "Hawthorn"; and thereafter at "Milton Valley". By her first marriage she had one son, and by her second a son and two daughters, as follows:

Note 1. Taylor Family.

§181. The following outlines are taken largely from a chart in the possession of Mr. Griffin Milton of Darlington, Md. I have added a few names and dates under the Taylor family, and have made several corrections and additions in other places, but have not attempted to verify the facts in every particular.

Richard Bushrod and Apphia his wife lived in Gloucester County, Virginia. He patented 4,000 acres of land in Westmoreland County in 1663. Their son,

John Bushrod, b. Jan. 30, 1663; d. Feb. 6, 1719, and is buried at the "Bushfield" estate, Westmoreland County, where his tomb may still be seen; m. Hannah Keene, daughter of William and Elizabeth Keene of Northumberland County, and had two sons and four daughters. His daughter Apphia married in 1705 William Faunt Le Roy, ancestor of the family of that name. His son Richard was a Captain in the French and Indian Wars. His son, John Bushrod lived at "Bushfield", and was a vestryman of Cople Parish in 1755, High Sheriff of Westmoreland County in 1759, and a member of the House of Burgesses, 1748-1755. He probably married his cousin Anne, daughter of Thomas Bushrod; she dying, he married Jane Corbin (see §183), and left two daughters, Hannah and Catherine. About 1760 Hannah married John Augustine Washington, a brother of George Washington, and had four children.—Bushrod, Corbin, Mildred and Augustine.

Catherine Bushrod, m. William Taylor; see §184.

§182. Col. Thomas Lowry of Virginia married Rebecca Jones, who had red hair. Their children were: William (who died unmarried), Thomas (who married Elizabeth Diggs and left issue), Elizabeth (who married a Mr. Richards), and Sarah Lowry, b. July 21, 1745; d. May 3, 1819. It is said that she became engaged to George Stubblefield, son of George, when about fifteen years of age. To prevent her early marriage, her father sent her to school 600 miles from home. Later she returned home and married Col. Raleigh Dangerfield, and had six children, all of whom died in infancy. Two years after his death, she married her first love, George Stubblefield. He became a Captain in the Revolutionary Army, and his orderly book is among the printed records of the Virginia Historical Society. Before the close of the War, he rose to the rank of Major. While he was away with the Revolutionary Army, the British soldiers persecuted his wife, who, with her children, was obliged to flee from her home. Her children were,—William Tabb Stubblefield (m. Susan Cannon), John Lowry Stubblefield (m. Fanny Jones), and Martha Peyton Stubblefield, m. Bushrod Taylor; see §187.

§183. Thomas Corbin of Warwick County, England, b. May 24, 1594; d. in June 1637; m in 1620, Winefred, daughter of Gawen Grosvenor. His son,

Henry Corbin, b. in 1629; d. Jan. 8, 1675; came to Virginia 1654; settled first in King and Queen County, and later in Westmoreland County; Burgess from Lancaster County in 1659, and a member of the Council as early as 1663; m. July 25, 1645, Alice Eltonhead, daughter of Richard and Ann (Sutton) Eltonhead of Lancaster County, England. Their son, Gawin Corbin, d. Jan. 1, 1745; Burgess in 1700, 1702, etc; member of the Council; either by his second wife, Jane Lane, or by his third wife, Martha Bassett, he had Jane, or Jenny Corbin, who married Col. John Bushrod; see §181.

§184. William Taylor married Catherine Bushrod (§181) about 1762, and settled at "Green Hill", Frederick County, near Berryville, which estate remained in the possession of his descendants till after 1870. It is said that during the Revolutionary War he was captain of the home guard to protect Battletown, now Berryville, from the depredations of British soldiers. Who his ancestors were has never been handed down, but it is thought that he was of the Tayloe family of Westmoreland County, a change of spelling occurring after he removed to Frederick
